HARRISON'S EXTRACTS FOR THE HANDKES-chief.—Nine thousand desen have been sold the second year of his business. How has this been done? It is easily told. His style is Auerican, his quality is American, his principles are American, and he is an American; and he is an American; and anericans will have his extracts. They constitute a class in his great list of Harrison's Columbian perfumery of thirty seven varieties, in which the demands of fancy taste, and refinement can be fully gratified; for his style in beauty and quality, in distinct funess of odor and rich delicacy of perfume, much surpasses Lutin's and all foreign extracts and their instations. Wholesaled by Hars Ha NORTHROP, 100 Greenwich street; retailed by H. W. SMITH, 173 and SS Ninth avenue. Harrison's extract of Patchouly is one of them. Try it.
